

Ministry with Families

An introductory Formation Experience

For All Those Whose Ministry Efforts Touch Families

This formation experience is designed to:

- ▶ Further the participant's transformation process in how they view the relationship between family and ministry.
- ▶ Deepen the understanding of the impact of ministry on the Church and the Home.
- ▶ Provide insight and skills for participants to live out a vision of Ministry with Families, more intentionally in both their personal lives and ministerial efforts.
- ▶ Increase understanding of the dynamics of the family and the parish as growing, changing systems.

Who might benefit:

Pastoral Staff, clergy, religious educators, RCIA Leadership, Parish volunteers, counselors, youth and young adult ministers, bereavement ministers, marriage preparation and enrichment leaders, parent educators, leaders in divorce, separated and widowed ministry.
