Director of Music and Liturgy
Bilingual (English/Spanish)
Holy Ghost Catholic Church

Summary:
Holy Ghost Church is searching for a full-time bilingual (English/Spanish) Director of Music and Liturgy. The Director of Music and Liturgy is responsible, together with the priest staff, for the effective planning, coordination and execution of Music within the liturgical celebrations (including bi-lingual liturgical celebrations) of the parish. The Director is also responsible for the growth and stability of all liturgical ministries. He/she will also help the parish to develop its potential by fostering unity in the One Body of Christ through the richness of its cultural and linguistic diversity. The duties of the Director will include the administration of the music ministry, formation and direction of choirs (including bilingual choirs performing bilingual music), facilitating the parish liturgy committee, and the education and coordination of volunteers. He/she may will be responsible for any other activities assigned by the pastor, including (but not limited to) accompanying the music in some of the weekend liturgies when volunteers are not available as musicians.

Requisites for Qualified Candidates:
- Minimum of a bachelor’s degree, with a preference for a master’s degree in music and liturgy
- Fluent in English and Spanish
- Minimum of 3-5 years’ experience as a director or supervisor of music in a bi-lingual Parish
- Experience in directing English, Spanish and bi-lingual choirs
- Experience in planning bi-lingual (English/Spanish) liturgies
- Minimum of 3-5 years’ experience as director or supervisor in a bi-lingual parish setting

Interested Candidates may submit a resume with cover letter and salary requirements to pastor@holyghostchurch.net with Music Director on the subject line.