

Director of Communications

St. Laurence Catholic Church

Sugar Land, TX

Job Summary:

St. Laurence Catholic Church is seeking a dynamic and creative Director of Communications to lead and execute our communication strategy across all digital, print and campus platforms. This individual will play a critical role in developing and managing church-wide communications ensuring alignment with our mission and vision. The ideal candidate must have a strong track record of being a self-starter who can work independently, is deadline driven, and thrives in creating and implementing new initiatives. Qualified candidates should possess excellent writing skills and proficiency in media relations, website management, and graphic design. Creativity, collaboration with parish leadership, staff, and volunteers, flexibility, and a love for our Catholic faith are key to success in this role.

To inquire about this position, please send your resume to Suzanne Byrne, Parish Administrator, sbyrne@stlaurence.org, 281.980.9812.

St. Laurence Catholic Church is a vibrant, welcoming community that is celebrating its 40th anniversary as a church parish. Located in Sugar Land, TX, a suburb of Houston, we have a creative and professional team of staff and dedicated volunteers who offer a variety of opportunities for faith development to a diverse parish of over 7000 families. St. Laurence is a stewardship church, a place to call home with a community of people who desire not only to be disciples of Christ but also evangelizers of His message.