

Director of Music
St. Albert Trapani Catholic Church
Houston, Texas

Summary:

St. Albert of Trapani Catholic Church, a diverse and vibrant community in Houston, Texas Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston, is seeking a practicing Catholic with qualifications in music and liturgy for the position of full-time music director. We are committed to providing a supportive and welcoming environment where your skills and faith can flourish, and where you will be encouraged to grow in your role.

Job Overview:

This position requires an energetic person of faith with solid administrative and musical skills, an understanding of Roman Catholic liturgy, experience as a pastoral musician in a Roman Catholic parish, and organ, piano, and directing skills.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES include the following duties:

Must possess practical and excellent knowledge of playing piano and organs and teaching music.

Teach and lead weekly rehearsals for the choir

Provide training and formation to the newcomers to the choir.

Oversee weekends, holy days, and Christmas and Easter masses to ensure everything runs smoothly.

Participate in the liturgy planning process and formation/scheduling/supervision of music ministers.

Requirements include pastoral experience and proficiency in music.

If interested in the position, please email Rev. Kingsley Nwoko at fkingsley@stalberthouston.org or call 7137713596.